

How can I register?

On the left side you find "Create an account"

After clicking on this, you will see an entry form. Fill in your name, user name, email address and your password.

You can change your login data anytime.

After saving you receive a confirmation email.

Click on the link in the confirmation email.

Only then the user identification is activated.

The image shows a registration form titled "Registrierung" in blue. It contains five input fields, each with a red asterisk indicating it is required: "Name:", "Benutzername:", "E-Mail:", "Passwort:", and "Passwort bestätigen:". Below the fields is a small note: "Felder die mit einem Stern (*) markiert sind, werden unbedingt benötigt." At the bottom left is a button labeled "Registrieren".
